THE BEEHIVE

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE BEEHIVE WHITE WALTHAM BERKSHIRE

The Beehive has been at the heart of White Waltham village life for over 150 years. Originally a Victorian alehouse serving the local farm workers and aviators from the nearby airfield, it soon earned its buzzing reputation as a true community hub.

Its name is no accident – much like a beehive, the pub has always thrived on energy, activity, and the coming together of locals and travellers alike. Pilots from White Waltham Airfield once swapped stories here after flying Spitfires in the Second World War, while generations of villagers have marked their weddings, wakes, and everything in between under its roof.

Today, The Beehive continues that tradition – still a place to gather, share good food, and raise a glass. Every pint pulled and every bottle uncorked adds another drop to a long history of hospitality, warmth, and, of course, a bit of buzz.

Our coffee is roasted less than 5 miles away, by Moneyrow Beans. Beehive Blend is an exclusive blend of speciality coffees from Colombia, Guatemala and Brazil. Roasted in small batches exclusively for the Beehive. As an espresso or black coffee you will experience a rich aromatic toasted nut flavour with a hint of bright fruitiness. With milk you will taste flavours of sweet creamy milk chocolate and honey. Moneyrow Beans have worked with our flagship the Belgian Arms for 8 years and we are very excited for this journey with The Beehive.
